CONDITIONS

Accepted,

CONDITIONS.

1. This order is contingent upon loss or damage by fire, failure of crops, loss of seed stock and contingencies beyond your control.

2. In case of failure or partial failure of crops of any one or more varieties, after deducting seed stock, you do not have the total amount of your orders for said year, it is agreed that you will furnish a pro rata share with the other purchasers of the respective kinds you have of the different varieties specified, which shall be in full performance of this order.

3. It is understood that you will exercise care to have all seeds pure and reliable, but that you do not warrant the same and are not liable for any failure.

4. You are to furnish bags at cost to be added to invoices unless notice is given to you to the contrary on or before July 15th and bags delivered not later than August 1st.

5. Wrinkled peas 56 lbs. per bushel. Other kinds of peas and beans 60 lbs., unless otherwise stated.

6. If the financial standing of the purchaser is unsatisfactory to you when seeds are ready for shipment, you have the right to require payment before same are shipped; and in case of refusal, either party may cancel this order.

1907

This order is given and accepted on the conditions enclosed hereto.

Witness my hand and seal of office this 1st day of July 1907 at St. Paul, Minnesota.

JOSEPH W. ROBERTS, President of the Minnesota Seed Growers' Association.
